Who Said What?

When using speech, you normally add a reporting clause to let the reader know who is speaking. This can come before or after the speech. For example:

Reporting
Clause

Rachel said, "My favourite food is pizza."

"My favourite food is pizza," said Rachel.

Reporting
Clause

If the reporting clause is before the speech, place a comma to separate it from the speech. However, if the reporting clause comes after the speech, use a full stop to show it's the end of the sentence.

Complete the sentences below by adding all the correct punctuation in the space provided.

1. What time will they arrive asked Sarah
2. Jack said My favourite colour is blue
3. The dragon sighed I'm tired of everyone running away from me
4. Off with her head shouted the Queen of Hearts
5. The frog declared Kiss me and I'll turn into a prince
6. Little pig, let me come in pleaded the big, bad wolf

Challenge: Rewrite the following sentence with the correct punctuation and capital letters.

the little boy said can I have hot chocolate before bed please

Split Speech 2

The following sentences below are missing punctuation. Write each sentence out again with all the correct punctuation – including inverted commas and capital letters.

Remember: Always place either a comma or a full stop after the reporting clause in the middle of speech.

1. a slipper cried the prince I need to find who it belongs to

2. i need thought the wizard eye of newt to finish the spell

3. robert said the teacher please read the next part of the text

Super Speech

Below is a picture of two superheroes. Using your imagination, write a passage of text – including speech – between the two characters. They could be discussing how to stop an evil villain? How to save the ocean? What powers they have? It's all your idea! Write your passage on the next page and use the checklist below the picture to make sure you have correctly used speech punctuation.
