Scheduled TEAMS meeting with Anti-Bullying Ambassadors from Rykneld Primary School		BB and BW represented Shobnall on a TEAMS meeting with two representatives from Rykneld Primary to share work and strategies that have been adopted by the two schools. Rykneld are currently undertaking the Community Action Badge as part of the Diana Award. They shared a PowerPoint and presented their whole school initiatives, including playground rules displayed clearly around the outdoor area. BB and BW spoke about Shobnall gaining the 'Gold All Together Award' through the Anti-Bullying Alliance and gave a list of our new initiatives including class contracts, Anti-Bullying leaflets for children, designing Peer Defenders and collaboration on planning themed weeks in school. After the meeting, BB and BW were keen to explore the Diana Award as an initiative for Shobnall to take part in. This will be discussed at our next meeting.
AOB		The next meeting will be held on Friday 25 th March 2022 at 1.15pm.

A copy of these minutes have been sent to Dr V Willis, Lead Governor for Anti-bullying.
