

1. Add the correct conjunctions to the sentences below.

and but or so

- a) Children know the rules _____ some are not following them.
- b) You must respect property _____ look after it.
- c) Pupils must wear uniform _____ they look smart.
- d) Do not drop litter _____ break equipment.

2. Rewrite the two sentences, choosing one of the co-ordinating conjunctions below to create a compound sentence.

and but or so

We have a lovely school. Let's look after it!

Please pick up litter. Keep the playground tidy.

Do not kick the ball over the fence. It will get lost.

We had new footballs. They were lost or damaged.

1. Add the correct conjunctions to the sentences below.

for and nor but or yet so

- a) Most pupils behave _____ some are not following the school rules.
- b) Pupils should not climb the fence _____ should they be on the roof!
- c) It is dangerous _____ must stop.
- d) We have many books _____ we love reading.
- e) The school has rules _____ everyone knows how they should behave.
- f) Pupils must follow the rules _____ parents will be contacted.
- g) Bins are provided _____ there is a large amount of litter.

2. Choose an appropriate co-ordinating conjunction to join the independent clauses below then rewrite them as a compound sentence.

Remember that some words may need to change or be removed to form the compound sentence correctly.

for and nor but or yet so

Nel didn't like the new colour. She didn't like the old colour either.

The sun was shining. It was very chilly.
