

Remember, personification is when you give a non-living object a human characteristic. See the examples below...

- The whiteboard proudly displayed its new ideas, hoping for applause.
- The clock yawned at the slow afternoon, dragging its hands in boredom.
- The books huddled together on the shelf, murmuring stories to one another.
- The desk stood tall, ready to support the weight of knowledge.
- The pencil danced gracefully across the paper, leaving its mark behind.

Activity

1. Match the object to the human quality to complete the sentence.

Object		Human quality
The candle flame		nodded in the wind.
The chocolate cake in the fridge		crept into the classroom.
The party		danced in the dark.
The wallflowers		sang a lonely song.
Along with the teacher, silence		was calling her name.
The wind		died as soon as he left.

Task 2

Write a paragraph about anything and to include personification and underline it.
